

An Examination of Conscience

Dear Holy Spirit,
Help me answer these questions honestly.
Help me as I try to be more like Jesus.

Do I talk to God every day?
Do I say God's name only in a prayerful way?
Am I trying to trust God like Jesus did?
Do I do things that will help me grow as God wants?
Do I take care of what I have?
Do I thank God for who I am?
Do I do my chores well or do I have to be asked?
Do I try to do my best at school?
When someone who is taking care of me asks me to do something good, do I obey?
When I am angry, do I talk about it or do I say or do things to hurt whoever hurt me?
Do I say "Please" and "Thank you"?
Do I say "I am sorry" and "I forgive you"?
Do I play fair or do I ever cheat at schoolwork or games?
Do I tell the whole truth? Or do I let people believe something that isn't true?

Thank You, Holy Spirit. I love You.
Amen.
